

She had sex with her boyfriend for the first time they both consented and used a condom. Next time her partner would like to try sex without a condom to see how it feels.....

What might her feelings be?

What are the risks?

She had sex with a guy she met at a party, they both had a few drinks and she can't remember using a condom. She isn't on any other method of contraception and her period is late.

What do you think she needs to do next?

Where or who could she go for help and support?

He had sex with a girl who told him she was on the pill. She sent him a message last night to say she thinks she may be pregnant.

How might he feel?

Is this his responsibility?

She used a condom when she had sex with her boyfriend but after sex they noticed the condom had split.

Is it common for condoms to split?

What should be her next steps?

They are both in a relationship and have good jobs since leaving school.
They have decided to start to try for a baby.

What do you think of them?

How old do you think someone should be to have a baby?

She has recently found out she is pregnant and isn't sure what to do. She has spoken to her partner and he said he will support her in her decision whatever it may be.

What are her options?

Where could she go for help?
